Dear Steve:

I wanted to thank you for addressing our attendees during our Fall Conference in New York on September 16.

Our members truly enjoyed your heart-warming, entertaining and informative presentation. It was a great closing general session keynote and it hit just the right note for our fall conference! Our attendees were attentive and laughing throughout the presentation and they even gave you a standing ovation! That's truly a good indicator that they more than enjoyed your presentation.

Thanks, again, for doing such a wonderful job for us in addressing our group during our Fall Conference. Our members have certainly made it clear that they were very pleased with your presentation. They certainly "Enjoyed the Ride!"

Sincerely,

NONI NICOLAOU
